Disclosure of Relevant Financial Relationships and Conflicts of Interest

Relevant Financial Relationships

For a person involved in the planning, administering or presentation of a continuing dental education activity, ADA CERP considers relevant financial relationships to be financial relationships in any amount, including those of a family member, occurring in the preceding 12 months, that are relevant to the content of the activity and that could create a conflict of interest. Relevant financial relationships must be disclosed to participants in CDE activities in writing.

Conflicts of Interest

ADA CERP considers that a conflict of interest may exist when an individual has an opportunity to affect the content of continuing dental education activities regarding products or services with which he/she has a financial relationship.

DISCLOSURE (Check one box below and complete as appropriate)

- ☐ I, the undersigned, declare that neither I nor any member of my family have a financial arrangement or affiliation with any corporate organization offering financial support or grant monies for this continuing dental education program, nor do I have a financial interest in any commercial product(s) or service(s) I will discuss in the presentation.
- ☒ I, the undersigned, (or an immediate family member), have a financial interest/arrangement or affiliation with the corporate organization offering financial support or grant monies for this continuing dental education program, or I do have a financial interest in any commercial product(s) or services I will discuss in the presentation.

Having an interest or an affiliation with a corporate organization does not necessarily prevent you from making a presentation, but the relationship must be made known to the audience.
